

The Sculpture Gallery

ZOIE & MATTHEW'S WEDDING

Zoie and Matthew were married at The Sculpture Gallery at Woburn Abbey. This former orangery, which once held the collection of sculptures of the 5th Duke of Bedford, was later restored as the beautiful building you see today. It stands in the South Court of Woburn Abbey, sited near to the magnificent 350 year old Cedar of Lebanon tree.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION
PLEASE CALL 01525 292172

THE LOOK

THE BRIDE WORE A strapless fitted empire gown with lace bolero by Augusta Jones, purchased from Ellie Sanderson of Beaconsfield. Tiara from Ellie Sanderson and shoes by Benjamin Adams

THE BRIDESMAIDS Gold strappy Debut from Debenhams dresses with matching bolero.

BRIDES FLOWERS Julie at The Flower Shop Woburn. Grand Prix red roses, hypericum berries and ivy hand tied posy.

WEDDING BREAKFAST Canapes with drinks reception. The bride and groom chose their favourite dishes for the meal of French onion soup with cheese crouton, thick cut rib eye of beef with Yorkshire pudding and medley of veg, Individual apple crumbles with calvados custard and Woburn ice cream, coffee and mints.

THE CAKE Hockley's Cakes Northampton. Three tier wedding cake with separate cutting cake. 12 hand made sugar roses. Three flavours – fruit, chocolate fudge and Madeira sponge.

THEY DANCED TO First dance – Leona Lewis 'A Moment Like This'. Live band – Groove Juice - 70s and disco music (amazing band!)

HOW WOULD YOU SUM UP YOUR WEDDING AT WOBURN? The best day of our lives, made all the better by the amazing venue, incredible food and the amazing organisation and support from Paula Muller. This was everything we ever wanted and much, much more. We wish that everyone could have a wedding as good as a Woburn wedding!

